18
JOBS
Eighteen learners found new or improved employment, including two who launched their own businesses.

Other Learner Accomplishments:

- One learner registered to vote. Another learner voted for the first time after obtaining citizenship.
- Several immigrant learners obtained their own rental apartments, opened bank accounts and received working papers.
- Two learners received library cards. Another learner worked with a tutor to develop a budget and was able to pay off some back debt.

The mission of Literacy Volunteers Ontario-Yates is to provide adults the literacy skills needed to reach their full potential as individuals, parents, workers and citizens.
